How we are

COMPENSATED

Property insurance claims are complicated, and the learning curve is steep. Our service fee, usually based on a percentage of your claim, is minimal in relation to your claim settlement and is offset by the better settlement you are likely to receive with our involvement — not to mention the time, hassle, and anxiety our experts can save you.

In Addition, our expertise is focused on improving your financial recovery. If we don't think our involvement will make a difference, we'll tell you.
